

Who are we?

Fred Abungu, Nairobi, Kenya.

Fred is married and has four sons. The family is living in Baba Ndogo, Nairobi. He founded the denomination Faith Church which now has 13 congregations around Kenya. Fred is the supreme head of the church community. Later the denomination started two schools, one in Baba Ndogo, Nairobi in 2004 and another outside Mombasa in 2012. Fred is a carpenter and has his income from this work. In addition he is a bishop and head of two schools.

Fred is keen to help anyone who has a hard time. He entertains many orphans and has helped many with education.

Joel Atamu Ojondo, Kitale, Kenya.

Joel is married and has two daughters and a son. The family live just outside Kitale town in northwestern Kenya. He has planted several churches that he leads. These are registered under the denomination Jesus Army. In 2006 he started a primary school in the village where he lives. Joel is a pastor in addition to being head of the school.

Joel is passionate that children in poor areas have opportunities in education.

Anastasia Wanjiku Venheim, Norge / Kenya.

Anastasia is married to Birger (see below) and currently lives in Skien, Norway.

She has grown up under very simple conditions. With hard work and assistance with funding from Norad she has taken master education in Kenya. She then worked for eighteen years as a teacher in high school, before she went into administrative jobs in the schooling system. She is currently on leave from her job as a Staffing Officer of TSC (Teachers Service Commission) in Kenya. Anastasia is now studying at the University of Agder, Norway. Several of the siblings she also paid for schooling. Later on she has also helped many others who have come in her way.

Birger Venheim, Skien, Norway.

Birger is married to Anastasia and lives in Skien. He has three daughters. He graduated as IT engineer from Bergen Technical School, but is now retired.

Birger is a member of The Norwegian Church. He has been active in church work and a member of the church council for several terms. He has also participated in the Open Doors work. He has served on the board and travelled as a Bible courier into different countries. For a while he worked as a volunteer at an orphanage in Egypt. He thinks that all children should be given equal opportunities in education.
